

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public. Finally, the Attorney General intends, at the earliest possible opportunity, to make these public documents available on the Internet on the Department of Justice World Wide Web site.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1.5 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Dear Mr Reed

The Singapore Embassy would like to maintain the services of T. Dean Reed Company at a monthly retainer of $5,000. The consultants would be required to assist the Embassy in three main functions which are the preparation of a monthly Singapore Newsletter, news monitoring and analysis, and to provide ongoing counsel on media matters.

2 The Embassy also agrees to reimburse T Dean Reed Company for additional expenses for news monitoring, mainly costs incurred for National Press Club Library searches. These should be separately billed to the Embassy at the end of each month.

3 Any extraordinary expenses, for additional work projects other than the newsletter, news monitoring and consultation, will be billed separately at agreed hourly rates. T Dean Reed Company should notify the Embassy when work is considered an 'additional project'. It should not be undertaken without the prior approval of the Ambassador or her representative.

4 Under the services represented, work and emphasis can be shifted from month to month, depending upon events, activities and priorities. We propose that we handle such an arrangement with flexibility, and to discuss the requirements of the arrangement when necessary.

5 We hope you will agree to the revised terms of contract and we look forward to a continued positive working relationship with the T Dean Reed Company.

Yours sincerely,

CHAN HENG CHEE
