

INSTRUCTIONS: Report must be submitted in duplicate to the Registration Unit, Internal Security Section, Criminal Division, Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530. The original must be signed by or on behalf of the registrant. All items in this form must be answered, unless the answer is "none" or "not applicable," in which case such an entry shall be made in the appropriate space. If additional space is needed for any item, attach supplemental sheet identifying each item.

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, dissemination report, copy of political propaganda or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy of every such document is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of such documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. Finally, the Attorney General transmits an annual report to the Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act, the foreign principals they represent, and the nature, sources and content of the political propaganda disseminated or distributed by them. This report is available to the public.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .5 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, D.C. 20503.

In addition to the numerous trade publications it provides, the JETRO, Los Angeles office also has a fully-stocked video library. Offered free of charge, the JETRO videos can be loaned-out for up to two weeks. Video subjects vary, yet mainly include topics on the Japanese market and business practices, and on Japanese society.

Two recently published videos are entitled "Working in Japan," and "Japan's Economy: The Road to New Growth."

"Working in Japan" examines the daily life and working conditions of two Americans living in Japan. It shows their efforts to overcome language barriers and to communicate more effectively. This video is definitely helpful to anyone considering to work at a Japanese firm or do business in Japan.

The other video, "Japan's Economy: A Road to New Growth" highlights the major transitions that Japan has experienced over the past couple years, including major political changes, overcoming the recession, and the effects caused by the yen's appreciation.

These and other free-to-use JETRO videos can be obtained by contacting the JETRO Public Relations department at (213) 624-8855.
