JETRO- Want to do business with Japan? Contact JETRO at 213-624-8855. Of the many import promotion programs currently operated by JETRO, the Import Product Specialist Program may have the most immediate results. It allows smaller Japanese wholesalers and retailers the opportunity to search for foreign products with clear import potential and business promotion in Japan.

Individuals experienced in international trade are selected for JETRO to short-term assignments in the U.S. and other developed countries. As Import Product Specialists, they meet foreign manufacturers and purchase a variety of promising product samples. The samples are then shipped to Japan and introduced to potential importers at JETRO's "New Imports Showcase" exhibition. Annually, assignments of Product Specialists are in the spring and autumn. This past spring, specialists of "do-it-yourself" products and apparel goods both visited the JETRO Los Angeles territory. During their two week stay, they each met between 25 and 30 businesses. A total of $1,000 of "do-it-yourself" items from California and Arizona and $2,500 in apparel made in Los Angeles and Hawaii was purchased for promotion in Japan. This autumn, an Import Product Specialists representing the Furniture Industry will arrive on September 24. Then, on October specialist in Household and Miscellaneous Products will arrive. Both Specialists will be in JETRO Los Angeles territory for two week period. If you would like to a Furniture and Household Specialist to meet with you this autumn, call Mr. Chris Baker the Business Development section of JETRO. Want to do business with Japan?
