Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, dissemination report, copy of political propaganda or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy of every such document is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of such documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. Finally, the Attorney General transmits an annual report to the Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act, the foreign principals they represent, and the nature, sources and content of the political propaganda disseminated or distributed by them. This report is available to the public.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .5 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, D.C. 20503.

WANT TO DO BUSINESS WITH JAPAN?
CONTACT JETRO AT (213) 624-8855

Because of the positive results of the Tokyo Business Support Center during its first year of operation, JETRO now has a total of five Centers, including ones in Nagoya, Yokohama, Osaka, and Kobe. with Conveniently-located with the metropolitan Japanese cities, the JETRO Business Support Centers serve as temporary strategic bases for private companies and trade organizations as they make their initial approach to the Japanese market.

In addition to providing information and advice from on-site business consultants, each facility offers the foreign business applicants the use of a well-equipped office space, in-house library and support staff for up to two months. Except for telephone, facsimile and photocopying fees, all services provided by the Centers are completely free to the user during their stay.

With the newly opened Kansai International Airport, many foreigners are realizing that there are business opportunities not only in Tokyo, but throughout Japan. To receive an application to use any of the five Centers, contact JETRO, Los Angeles at (213) 624-8855.
