

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public. Finally, the Attorney General intends, at the earliest possible opportunity, to make these public documents available on the Internet on the Department of Justice World Wide Web site.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1.5 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Question 3:

“This amendment is filed to accomplish the following indicated purpose or purposes.”

Answers to Question 3:

This amendment is filed to correct a deficiency in the Supplemental Statement for the period ending July 31, 2001.

This amendment is also filed to cancel the Short Form Registration of Thomas J. Delaney who, although still associated with the Registrant, is no longer engaged in political activities on behalf of any foreign principal.

Question 5:

“Each item above must be explained below in full detail together with, where appropriate, specific reference to an identity of the item in the registration statement to which it pertains.”

Answer to Question 5:

With respect to Question 7 of the Supplemental Statement regarding whether the Registrant's connection with any foreign principal has ended, the answer is now “Yes” because the Registrant has ceased activity on behalf of the Government of Liechtenstein as of the filing of its Supplemental Statement for the period ending July 31, 2001.
