U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, DC 20530Short Form Registration Statement
Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS. Each partner, officer, director, associate, employee, and agent of a registrant is required to file a short form registration statement unless he engages in no activities in furtherance of the interests of the registrant's foreign principal or unless the services he renders to the registrant are in a secretarial, clerical, or in a related or similar capacity. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic short form registration statement at <https://www.fara.gov>.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the Registration Unit's webpage: <https://www.fara.gov>. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public and online at: <https://www.fara.gov>.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .429 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Counterintelligence and Export Control Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Footnote: "Political activity," as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act, means any activity which the person engaging in believes will, or that the person intends to, in any way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

Working Plan

Development of a resolution by the United States Senate supporting the convening of an international donor conference for the Regional Government of Kurdistan, and to undertake efforts to insure passage of the resolution by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and Senate as a whole.

Activities:

- Drafting of language of the resolution based on content found through our research that will be most politically favorable to both parties in the Senate with input from representative of the Kurdish Regional Government to call for a convening of an international donor conference in support of the Kurdistan Region of Iraq's humanitarian challenges.
- Identifying Members of the Senate who will serve as sponsors of the resolution
- Directly contacting the Senate leadership and potential sponsors to provide copies of our most desirable resolution draft language
- Working directly with Senate majority and minority leadership staff and staff of the Foreign Relations Committee to refine resolution language
- Directly contacting offices of each Committee member to gauge support or resistance to the resolution
- Maintaining continuous communication with representatives of the Kurdish Regional Government to insure seamless coordination of information and updates on the resolution's progress

Projected Timetable:

Onset of project through April 9

Finalize draft of preferred language of resolution in coordination with PASS-USA and representatives of Kurdish Regional Government; identify potential sponsors of bill, make initial contact with sponsors' Senate Office

April 9 – April 20

Senate returns from Easter break. Work with leadership to set target date to introduce resolution and send to Committee. Target of April 20 for reporting out to the full Senate

Week of April 23

Target full Senate vote before the early May break
