INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT TO PARAGRAPH 11

The foreign principal on whose behalf the Registrant functions in the United States is World Zionist Organization (W.Z.O.) whose main office is located in Jerusalem.

The general objectives of W.Z.O. are:

To foster the ideals of Zionism and Judaism, and the unity of the Jewish people, to encourage the immigration of Jews to Israel and their resettlement and rehabilitation therein in industry, agriculture, commerce and the trades; and to assist and further their cultural, educational, religious, social, artistic and scientific endeavors.

To encourage, foster and promote the knowledge and study of the Hebrew language and literature, Jewish culture, history, philosophy and traditions, and the achievements of the Zionist ideal; and in connection therewith, to disseminate, publish and otherwise make available cultural, literary, religious, social, artistic, scientific and other publications and works relating to Judaism, Zionism, Israel, and kindred subjects.

Generally, the purpose of the Registrant's activities is to gain the increasing and continuing support of the American Jewish community for the above-mentioned objectives. However, the specific activities of the Registrant are primarily educational, cultural and religious and are carried out by its various departments, as more fully set forth in Schedule A, attached hereto.
